

Call for participants - EUtopia, LTTA

Do you think the world could be a better place and would you like to do something about it? Do you have a must-see project idea you'd like to work on with friends? Want to learn more about how to develop an idea, how to manage your project, how to turn a utopian idea into reality?

Then the EUtopia project's LTTA in Budapest is for you!

About the project:

The EUtopia project was launched in 2023 in partnership with 5 countries: Belgium, France, Hungary, Italy and Poland.

The project aims to integrate the concepts of utopia and dystopia in the civic education of young people. Through a better understanding of these concepts and through the tools collected and presented during the project, to support young people in envisioning a more positive future and to encourage them to take action to achieve this goal.

The project also includes an LTTA in Budapest, in which groups of 3 young people from the project partner countries can develop their own utopian project idea to make the world a better place.

Date: 4-8 December 2023.

Location: Budapest

The event is open to groups of 3 people who:

- 18-25 years old,

- speak English at a conversational level,

- have an idea for a project that they would like to develop together.

Participation in the event is free of charge. The project is implemented in the framework of the Erasmus+ Programme, the participants' travel, accommodation, meals and other costs are funded by the European Union.
